MEMBERS and friends of the Grand Commandery of the Castello (GCC), a jurisdiction of the Military and Hospitaller Order of Saint Lazarus of Jerusalem based in Mensija, San Gwann, were treated to an enchanting musical evening at St James Cavalier by Maltese tenor Nico Darmanin. Accompanied by Italian pianist Leonardo Barilaro, Nico Darmanin entertained the audience with a selection of some favourite romantic songs and arias.

Supported by the baroque Palazzo Prince D'Orange (www.palazzoprincemalta.com), situated in St Paul's Street, Valletta, the performance was followed by a reception. Proceeds went towards organisations assisting lepers in India.

The GCC's charity fund focusses on assisting organisations working for lepers in India and Ethiopia. One such organisation is Women in Need. Further information from: <http://grandcommanderymalta.org>
